Flip is fun, excitable and curious. He spots clues and asks big questions.

Flip's clue: Stay curious. Every good question can open a new path.

They need someone who notices what others miss.
THAT IS WHERE YOU COME IN.

then spin.

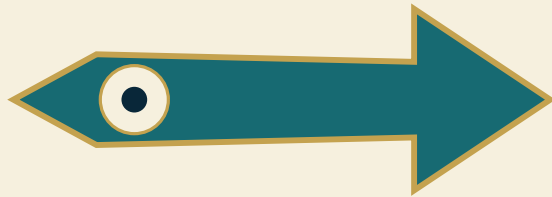

The two words at the pointer become your secret

A MESSAGE FROM HEADQUARTERS

The Signal Finds You

At Secret Headquarters, Kai was studying a pulse of light moving across the map. It travelled through ocean currents, rain clouds, street drains and garden soil.

Flip circled the signal. 'It is not coming from one place,' he said. 'It is coming from everywhere.'

Kai watched a new point of light appear - exactly where you stood. 'Then we have found our agent,' she said. 'Someone who can notice what others miss.'

This was your first field briefing.

The full Starter Kit continues the adventure with more missions and field tools.
